JURY TRIAL DEMANDED

COLLECTIVE ACTION

PURSUANT TO 29 U.S.C. § 216(b)

ORIGINAL COLLECTIVE ACTION COMPLAINT

I. SUMMARY

1. Matt Chance (hereinafter "Plaintiff" or "Chance") brings this lawsuit to recover unpaid overtime wages and other damages from Aim Directional Services, LLC ("AIM" or "Defendant") for himself and all others similarly situated under the Fair Labor Standards Act ("FLSA"). Instead of paying Plaintiff overtime, Defendant paid Plaintiff and all of its similarly situated MWDs, LWDs, and Directional Drillers a base salary and daily rate or field bonus. This collective action seeks to recover the unpaid overtime wages and other damages owed to these workers.

II. JURISDICTION AND VENUE

2. This Court has original subject matter jurisdiction pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1331 because this action involves a federal question under the FLSA.

3. Venue is proper in this Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b).

III. THE PARTIES

4. Plaintiff worked for Defendant as an MWD during the relevant statutory time period. His consent to be a party plaintiff has been attached hereto as Exhibit A.

5. The nationwide class of similarly situated employees ("Putative Class Members") consists of:

ALL INDIVIDUALS WHO WERE (A) EMPLOYED BY AIM OVER THE PAST THREE YEARS; (B) WORKED AS AN MWD, LWD AND/OR DIRECTIONAL DRILLER; AND (C) WERE PAID A BASE SALARY AND DAY RATE WITH NO OVERTIME COMPENSATION

6. Defendant Aim Directional Services, LLC may be served by serving its registered agent Michael Jensen, 1622 Yorktown Blvd., Corpus Christi, Texas 78418.

IV. COVERAGE UNDER THE FLSA

7. At all times hereinafter mentioned, Defendant has been an employer within the meaning of the Section 3(d) of the FLSA, 29 U.S.C. § 203(d).

8. At all times hereinafter mentioned, Defendant has been part of an enterprise within the meaning of Section 3(r) of the FLSA, 29 U.S.C. § 203(r).

9. At all times hereinafter mentioned, Defendant has been part of an enterprise engaged in commerce or in the production of goods for commerce within the meaning of Section 3(s)(1) of the FLSA, 29 U.S.C. § 203(s)(1), in that said enterprise has and has had employees engaged in commerce or in the production of goods for commerce, or employees handling, selling, or otherwise working on goods or materials that have been moved in or produced for commerce by any person and in that said enterprise has had and has an annual gross volume of sales made or business done of not less than $500,000 (exclusive of excise taxes at the retail level which are separately stated).

10. At all times hereinafter mentioned, Plaintiff and the Putative Class Members were engaged in commerce or in the production of goods for commerce.

V. FACTS

11. AIM is a multi-service drilling company based in Corpus Christi, Texas. AIM provides horizontal and directional drilling services through MWD, LWD, and directional drilling field support professionals.

12. Over the statutory time period, AIM has employed hundreds of Putative Class Members throughout the United States. While exact job titles may differ, these employees were subjected to the same or similar illegal pay practices for similar work.

13. The Putative Class Members' primary job duties include operating oilfield machinery, collecting/relaying data, and reporting their daily activities to their field supervisors for analysis. The Putative Class Members conduct their day-to-day activities within designated parameters and in accordance with a predetermined well plan. The well plan was created, implemented, and regularly maintained by the well site supervisors. The Putative Class Members activities are routine and largely governed by standardized plans and checklists created by AIM and its clients. Every element of the Putative Class Members' job was predetermined for them by AIM and its clients, including the tools to use at a job site, the data to compile, and schedule of work and related work duties.

14. The job functions of the Putative Class Members are primarily manual labor/technical in nature, requiring little to no official training. Likewise, college education is not required to perform these job functions.

15. All of the Putative Class Members worked similar hours and were denied overtime as a result of the same illegal pay practice. All of the Putative Class Members were generally scheduled to work 84 hours per workweek, but often worked more. Instead of being paid hourly, all of the Putative Class Members were paid a base salary plus a day rate. No matter how many hours the Putative Class Members worked in excess of forty hours a week, they were not paid overtime compensation.

VI. FLSA VIOLATIONS

16. During the relevant time period, AIM violated, and is violating, the provisions of Sections 6 and/or 7 of the FLSA, 29 U.S.C. §§ 206, 207, and 215(a)(2), by employing employees in an enterprise engaged in commerce or in the production of goods for commerce within the meaning of the FLSA for workweeks longer than 40 hours without compensating such employees for their employment in excess of 40 hours per week at rates no less than one and one-half the regular rates for which they were employed.

17. AIM knowingly, willfully, or in reckless disregard carried out this illegal pattern or practice of failing to pay the Putative Class Members their overtime compensation. The decision by AIM not to properly pay overtime compensation to the Putative Class Members was neither reasonable, nor in good faith. Accordingly, the Putative Class Members are entitled to overtime wages under the FLSA in an amount equal to one and one-half times their rate of pay, plus liquidated damages, attorney's fees and costs.

VII. COLLECTIVE ACTION ALLEGATIONS

18. Numerous employees have been victimized by this pattern, practice and policy which are in willful violation of the FLSA. Many of these employees have worked with Plaintiff and have reported that they were paid in the same manner and were not properly compensated for all hours worked as required by the FLSA. Thus, from his observations and discussions with these employees, Plaintiff is aware that the illegal practices or policies of Defendant have been imposed on the Putative Class Members nationwide.

19. The Putative Class Members all received a salary plus a day rate, regularly worked in excess of 40 hours per week, and were not paid overtime compensation. These employees are victims of AIM's unlawful compensation practices and are similarly situated to Plaintiff in terms of job duties, pay provisions, and employment practices.

20. AIM's failure to pay wages and overtime compensation at the rates required by the FLSA result from generally applicable, systematic policies and practices which are not dependent on the personal circumstances of the Putative Class Members. Thus, Plaintiff's experiences are typical of the experiences of the Putative Class Members.

21. The specific job titles or precise job locations of the various Putative Class Members does not prevent collective treatment. All of the Putative Class Members, regardless of their precise job requirements or rates of pay, are entitled to be properly compensated for all hours worked in excess of 40 hours per week. Although the issue of damages may be individual in character, there is no detractor from the common nucleus of liability facts.

VIII. RELIEF SOUGHT

22. WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for judgment against AIM as follows:

- a. For an Order pursuant to Section 16(b) of the FLSA finding Defendant liable for unpaid back wages due to Plaintiff (and those who have joined in the suit) and for liquidated damages equal in amount to the unpaid compensation found due to Plaintiff;
- b. For an Order awarding Plaintiff (and those who have joined in the suit) the costs of this action;
- c. For an Order awarding Plaintiff (and those who have joined in the suit) their attorneys' fees;

- d. For an Order awarding Plaintiff (and those who have joined in the suit) unpaid benefits and compensation in connection with the FLSA violations;
- e. For an Order awarding Plaintiff (and those who have joined in the suit) pre-judgment and post-judgment interest at the highest rates allowed by law;
- f. For an Order granting such other and further relief as may be necessary and appropriate.

Respectfully submitted,
